Dear SCAAO members,

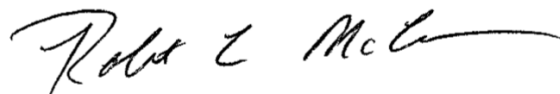

I hope that everyone has had a good summer and ready for all that the Fall calendar brings about: tax bills, reassessment notices, and for those like us, the end of a reassessment program (and football, of course). The Fall also brings the 2022 SCAAO Fall Conference which will be held on October 7th at Seawell's in Columbia. I look forward to seeing you there.

I want to thank you for allowing to me to serve as your SCAAO president this year. I am thankful that we were able to get back to some sort of normality and continue on with the Spring Conference in North Myrtle in 2022. Continuing education was provided and the conference was well attended. I got to learn first-hand what all is involved in the planning for this conference. Many thanks to our Education and Conference Committees for coming together to make it happen!

I would encourage you all to attend these annual conferences. These conferences provide a wealth of information into the everchanging landscape of our profession. As well, we are able to openly discuss these changes with our peers and exchange different perspectives, opinions, and ideas on how to better serve the citizens that we serve. It is great to attend the conferences, but if you are interested in getting more involved in this organization, please make myself or one of the board members aware.

Again, it has been a pleasure to serve in such an outstanding organization with outstanding PEOPLE. See you on October 7th!

Thanks,

Robert (Bob) L. McLean
2022 SCAAO President
